San Antonio Highlights Tour with River Cruise and Towers of America's Observation Tower Luncheon

This will be predominantly a driving tour of San Antonio City Highlights; with a stop at the Towers of America, where we will experience the most breathtaking view of the Alamo City; 750 feet tall above the city. And then enjoy another view on our River Cruise!

Highlights will include....

Institute of Texan Cultures, Hemisphere Park

Site of the 1968 world's fair and home to the 622 ft. - Tower of the Americas.

Mission San Jose

Mission Concepcion

the oldest unrestored stone church in our nation today.

Market Square

San Fernando Cathedral

Among the oldest Catholic parish churches in the southwest.

Main Plaza

The heart of San Antonio dating from 1772.

Plaza De Armas

The original site of the Spanish Presidio and home of the Spanish Governor when Texas was under Spanish rule.

La Villita

San Antonio's oldest surviving neighborhood dating from the 1750's.

Our tour will be followed by a relaxing cruise down the beautiful Paseo Del Rio, shaded by towering cypresses, oaks and willows and bordered by gardens of flowering ornamental foliage. One level below the hustle and bustle of the city streets, the riverboats take you on a three-mile tour of lush green foliage, unique retail shops and restaurants. After which we will go and eat Mexican food at the Mexican Manhattan. On the Menu... ENCHILADAS & TACOS!

Friday, October 3rd, 2009

San Antonio Mission Tour w/Tex Mex Luncheon

San Antonio a fun and vibrant city of today began as a community of five Spanish colonial missions built along the spring-fed San Antonio River. On this tour we will visit 3 of the most popular!

The Alamo

The most famous spot in Texas - where Davy Crockett, Colonel William Barrett Travis, Jim Bowie and 186 other died fighting for Texas independence on March 6, 1836, after repeated attacks from Mexican General Santa Anna, the battle that inspired the cry "Remember the Alamo."

Mission San Jose

You will see how the missions formed the foundation of the city and learn about South Texas' unique history and colorful culture. And

Mission Concepcion

With it's original frescos still visible within the rooms of the mission! This is the oldest unrestored stone church in our nation today.

After our Mission Visit, we will make a stop in

Market Square

Leisure time to browse the arts & crafts of this unique market. And enjoy an authentic Tex Mex Luncheon at the La Margarita. On the menu... FAJITA'S! Beef & Chicken Fajita Plate or Fresh Cod Grilled.
